

Directions from the Old House, High Town

Standing with your back to the entrance of the Old House in High Town turn to face your left. Now proceed straight on passing the Post Office on your right and St. Peter's Church on your left until you arrive at the end of the pedestrianised area.

Cross the entrance to Offa Street and carry straight on down St. Owen's Street passing the Town Hall on your right. As you continue down St. Owen's Street you will pass the entrance to Barroll Street and then St. John's Methodist Church.

Continue straight on crossing first the junction of St. Owen's Street and Cantilupe Street and then shortly afterwards the junction of Mill Street and St. Owen's Street.

After carefully crossing these junctions continue directly on passing the Fire Station on your left and then the Victory Inn on your right.

Proceed straight on and in a fairly short distance you should cross the entrances to Grove Road, Grenfell Road and St. James' Road, whilst on your left you will pass St. Giles' Almshouses.

If you look across the road at the end of the row of almshouses and on the corner of Ledbury Road you should see a sign directing you down Eign Road (B4224) to the County Archives and the TA Centre.

Continue directly onwards down what is now Eign Road. You should pass the First Church of Christ, Scientist on your right.

Take the next immediate right hand turn into the short Bartonsham Road, passing the Chinese takeaway on your right.

You will emerge onto Harold Street and directly in front of you on the other side of the road is the Herefordshire Record Office.
