Court Code 1841/5841

ORDER ON CONVICTION RELATING TO ANTI-SOCIAL BEHAVIOUR

The order was made under section 1C of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998

The Defendant:

Brian Price

Date of Birth: 26.11.1958

Case No: 01610270

Gender: Male

01627378

01605455

01627362

Of: 137 Noel Hill Road, Cross Houses, Shrewsbury SY5 6LD

was convicted on 21.4.08

at the Magistrates' Court sitting at Hereford of two offences under the Consumer Protection (Cancellation of Contracts Concluded away from Business Premises) Regulations 1987 and three offences under the Fraud Act 2006

and this court imposed a sentence of nine months imprisonment in total

The Court found that the defendant had acted in an anti-social manner which caused or was likely to cause harassment, alarm or distress to one or more persons not of the same household as the defendant. The defendant had carried on a business in doorstep selling of garden maintenance including tree felling. The defendant is the sole proprietor of the business. The defendant targets vulnerable elderly householders and induces them, often by fraudulent misrepresentation, into having garden work done, for example felling trees which he stated are dangerous and need to be cut down immediately, when in fact they are not unsafe anyway. The defendant has on occasions entered the person's property without specific invitation and as a result caused them to feel intimidated and distressed. He failed to provide consumers with legally required contracts giving his name, address and 7 days cancellation rights. He has charged excessive amounts for poor quality and often unnecessary work and pressured householders into paying by cash wherever possible. Mr Price has given some of the consumers the impression of the possibility of them being burgled in the future. The defendant by his actions has left elderly householders feeling harassed, alarmed and distressed, and that an order was necessary to protect persons in England and Wales from further anti-social acts by the defendant.

The Court Ordered

on 12.5.08

that the defendant is prohibited from the following which are suspended until the defendant is released from:

1. Making unsolicited visits (cold calls/visits without prior permission from the occupier) to residential properties anywhere in England and Wales with a view to carrying out any business, or allowing others to do so on his behalf. "Business" includes gardening/landscaping/tree felling or any property repairs or maintenance, or any business of purchasing selling goods/items of any kind.
2. Accompanying another person or persons on an unsolicited visit by them to a residential property with a view to carrying out any business activity.

3. Being on any residential premises where business activity is being or has been canvassed for during an unsolicited visit by anyone who is an associate of the defendant, or has been instructed by or colluded with the defendant to make such a visit.

This order remains in force for ten years
