

How to reserve items on the library catalogue

Reservations can be placed on any item on the Herefordshire Libraries catalogue. You can reserve titles free of charge, and when they are available they will be delivered to your local library for you to collect.

Step 1 Log in to your account

Go to <https://prism.librarymanagementcloud.co.uk/herfordshire/> and sign into 'My account' with your library account number and PIN.

You can find your account number on the back of your library card (include an 'X' if this appears as the last character) or in the email we sent if you joined the library online.

If you don't know your PIN, you can reset it here.

Step 2 Search for items

Search for items using keywords from author and/or title in the box labelled 'Search the library catalogue'. Enter one or more keywords and click on 'Search'. For more tips on how to search for items see 'Help'.

The beekeeper of Aleppo

Lefteri, Christy, 1980- author

Nuri is a beekeeper; his wife, Afra, an artist. They live a simple life, rich in family and friends, in the beautiful Syrian city of Aleppo - until the unthinkable happens. When all they care for is destroyed by war, they are forced to escape. But what Afra has seen is so terrible she has gone blind, and so they must embark on a perilous journey through Turkey and Greece towards an uncertain future in Britain. On the way, Nuri is sustained by the knowledge that waiting for them is Mustafa, his cousin and business partner, who has started an apiary and is teaching fellow refugees in Yorkshire to keep bees. As Nuri and Afra travel through a broken world, they must confront not only the pain of their own unspeakable loss, but dangers that would overwhelm the bravest of souls
