V-NCL-FAM-01 Family Learning

This one-day session at Belmont Haywood Country Park aims to show parents/carers the value of sharing outdoor learning activities with their children and the benefit this can have on their children's development. The session will support parents/carers in building confidence to visit new places with their children and gives them the opportunity to meet and socialise with other parents. By attending the session, parents/carers will develop an understanding of the adult's role in supporting the social, physical, intellectual, communication and emotional development of their children exploring an outdoor environment. The course is very much about supporting and guiding parents/carers to take part in the activities with their children.

However, it is important to note that children attending will be the responsibility of their parents/carers and will be supervised by their parents/carers accordingly. Safeguarding and Health and safety of the children will be naturally embedded within the session.

V-TCS-NBC-01 Neurodivergent Bowl Carving

A 6-week course giving learners the opportunity to learn carving tool and axe skills, advice on timber selection and guidance to develop skills to carve a wooden bowl.

The learners will all be members of the Autistic and ADHD community and all tutors and volunteers will be either members of the Autistic and ADHD community or have experience working with neurodivergent people. The aim of this is to create a group where the members are comfortable to be their authentic self, which will allow them to communicate with others and improve their understanding of themselves and their self-esteem. Learners will be guided and supported in learning to understand their own wellbeing and developing tools and strategies for managing their health and wellbeing as Neurodivergent people.

V-TCS-AAW-01 Autumn Activities & Wellbeing

'Autumn Activities and Wellbeing'

23rd, 30th September and 7th, 14th, 21st October 2024

This five-week course will provide you with the chance to try a variety of seasonal crafts using natural materials from the woods and beyond.

These may include: Corn Dollies; Autumn Leaf Bowls; Simple whittled or turned toadstools; Autumn Garlands; Autumn Lanterns or window hangings; Ephemeral artworks.

We will also be thinking about using nature and our senses to help develop strategies to support mental wellbeing. For example by exploring Shinrin Yoku, Forest Bathing.

The course will be running at TCS willowbed site for 5 weeks on Mondays between 10am and 3pm and it is expected that you will attend all sessions.

The main aims of the course are:

To guide and support learners in developing some basic seasonal crafting skills, and in learning to understand their own wellbeing and in developing sensory tools and strategies for managing their health and wellbeing.

Returning learners will have the opportunity to work with tutors to design an appropriate individual programme to support ongoing progression.
