Coroner's Office – Herefordshire Council appoints and pays for the Coroner for the county. The Coroner is not a local government officer but holds office under the Crown.

Herefordshire Council is required to appoint an officer of the council to be the Electoral Registration Officer for any constituency or part of a constituency situated in the local authority area. It is important to note that the Electoral Registration Officer discharges the responsibilities of Acting Returning Officer at UK

July 2020

Parliamentary elections. The Electoral Registration Officer is not entitled to appoint their own deputies. That duty falls to the local authority, which may appoint such officers.

Herefordshire Council shall appoint an officer of the council to be the Returning Officer for the election of councillors of the district and for the election of any parish councillor in its area. The Returning Officer for district council elections is automatically appointed as local Returning Officer for their respective local authority area for Police and Crime Commission elections and European Parliamentary elections. The Returning Officer for district council elections is also responsible as counting officer for the administration of any referendum for the authority area. Returning Officers are entitled to appoint deputies to discharge all or any of the duties placed upon them.

The duties and responsibilities of these officers are personal to that officer and independent of the local authority and is separate from their duties as a local government officer.

Electoral Returning Officer (ERO) - the personal responsibilities include: duty to maintain a list of UK Parliamentary and local Government electors for the local authority area, duty to maintain a list of relevant citizens of the European Union entitled to vote at European Parliamentary elections, a requirement to take reasonable steps to obtain information for these purposes and to ensure that persons who are entitled to be registered are, a requirement to conduct an annual electoral participation by electors in the electoral process and a requirement to meet such standards of performance as set out by the Electoral Commission.

Returning Officer (RO) – the personal responsibilities include: conduct of elections and referendums in accordance with the rules relevant to that type of election or referendum, and each election is governed by its own set of rules.

Role of the Monitoring Officer – responsible for maintaining the Constitution, ensuring decision making is fair and lawful, and reporting any actual or potential breach of a legal requirement to the Council meeting or Cabinet, and for dealing with complaints that councillors have breached the councillor code of conduct and reporting as necessary to the Audit & Governance Committee.

Details of partnership arrangements the council has with other authorities are included in Article 9 (Joint Arrangements) of the council's Constitution.
